AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL

For the Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

This is a reliable remedy for all diseases of the lungs and throat, that has obtained a celebrity from its extraordinary power equalled by any other medicine. Either physicians or patients have proved its virtues, and some times of almost miraculous cures have followed in its wake. After years of trial, it is now universally known and acknowledged to be the best of all medicines, which could not fail to attract the attention of physicians, Patients and the public in general.

This preparation is not of obscure individuals, and unknown places, but of men who are known and read of all men, and whose testimony is received throughout the country.

The widely celebrated Surgeon, Dacr. VALENTINE MOTT, of New York City, says:

"I do not hesitate to certify the value and efficacy of Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which I consider a valuable addition to the materia medica for the cure of diseases of the throat and lungs."

The venerable Professor of the Medical Department of Dartmouth College, Dr. DIXI CRAFTS, says:

"I have for years been in the habit of prescribing your Cherry Pectoral in my practice, and have found it to be a valuable medicine for the diseases of the throat and lungs."

Rev. ELIJAH KELLOGG, a distinguished Clergyman of the Methodist Church, says:

"Dr. Ayer: Sir, I feel that it is due to you and the public, that I should let my name be used in connection with your Cherry Pectoral. His medicine has proved in my family, in the case of my child, a most decided blessing, and has saved her life. I shall not hesitate to recommend it to my friends and parishioners, as the best of all medicines for the diseases for which it is recommended."

BOGLE'S AMOLE.

A COMPOUND FOR SHAVING.

This delightful article is totally different and far superior to anything yet invented for shaving! This Amole is a vegetable extract from the Amole or Soap plant of California, an article used by the natives of that country for washing! and thus, when used, leaves the skin soft! so tender! so pure! so healthy! and so healthy! MONDAY, MAY 5, 1851.

☞ We are glad to learn from the New York papers that permission has been sent from Washington to the proprietors of the California Mail Steamers to alter the day of sailing of their vessels when it occurs on Sunday, to the Monday succeeding. Similar instructions will be sent out to San Francisco in regard to the sailing of the Steamships from that port. It will be found, practically, by and by, and that before many years, that the many and insurmountable evils, troubles and difficulties of suspending mails on the Sabbath, which figured so largely in Col Johnson's famous report, were mere phantoms, and in modern parlance humbugs. The American people like to go strong and fast six days in the week, but are finding out, in various ways that they can well afford to rest on the Sabbath. We believe the country would be better off to suspend at once all mail transportation on the Sabbath.

Kennebec and Portland and Skowhegan Railroads.

At a large and respectable meeting of the stockholders of the Kennebec and Portland Railroad, held at Gardiner, the 29th of April, it was voted that the Directors of that road be authorized to lease the Skowhegan Railroad, when finished, for 20 years, at 6 per cent interest on $600,000. The business which will naturally seek an outlet by the means of these two roads is immense already, and must increase so long as the Kennebec valley maintains its present character for natural resources and enterprise.

☞ A fine Brig, the Abner Taylor, was launched on Saturday from the ship-yard of the Rockaway Union Ship-Building Company. This is the first vessel that this associative company have built, and she does much to establish their reputation for excellent workmanship and for general skill in conducting their business. We find great satisfaction in the fact that this association of mechanics in which the working forces in all the departments are mutually interested have in their first specimen succeeded so well and trust they may long continue in active business. The Abner Taylor is owned by several of our citizens who, mostly, for the first time are interested in the ownership of navigation: and they have in a vessel of beautiful model, with great strength and with large working capacities and which we hope may prove to be a profitable investment.

☞ A Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Express states that expeditions against Cuba have been preparing for some time to go from Apalachicola, Mobile, Savannah and New York. Most of the men enlisted in this enterprise are Hungarians and a portion of the young men of the Southern States, and very very few at the north having any thing to do with the first, first enterprise. The chances for success are very slight as Cuba is better prepared to oppose a foe, than ever before and the naval force of every nation, cruising in the Gulf, will help the Spanish Navy in bringing such expeditions under Spanish guns.

☞ The successful efforts of Mr John Bus a, the butter and egg dealer in Kenduskeag Market, to supply the citizens of Bangor with choice butter is fully appreciated by those who know his great skill as a judge of butter in the country, and the fancy took him a few days since to secure for his friends a quantity of fresh sweet, aromatic spring butter from the green and flower gemmed pastures of western New York. He started upon his worthy expedition and has returned with the choicest selection of butter that ever graced the spring market in this city. Those who wish to enjoy the delightful titillation of the essential oil of cream, can be easily accommodated.

☞ On Wednesday morning last, a fire broke out in Charlestown, Mass, in the large wooden building between Front and Lynde streets owned by Christopher Sohis Esq, and occupied by Mr George S. Hall as a morocco leather manufactory. The fire was not subdued till it had communicated with several a joining buildings and dwelling houses, and consumed the factory building with its contents, consisting of hides, leather, dye woods and drugs tools, etc, belonging to Mr Hall. The total loss of all parties injured will fall between 15 and $20,000.

☞ The editor of the Boston Daily Mail says that he is satisfied that Massachusetts ought to export at least two millions of dollars worth of fruit in good seasons, and it shall not be his fault if the thing is not accomplished in ten or fifteen years from this time. This is the right idea. Political and miscellaneous papers cannot perform a more acceptable service to the public than to devote a portion of their space to the subject of fruit raising and other means of improving the land and securing good crops.

☞ In excavating wells in Anderson county, East Tennessee, salt water has been found at a depth of about five hundred and seventy feet. Tubes have been ordered, and all possible dispatch will be employed to commence the manufacture of salt. Other wells will soon be sunk, and the prospect now is that a hitherto undiscovered source of wealth to East Tennessee is about to be unlocked.

☞ We understand that instructions have been received from the Treasury Department, directing the revenue officers strictly to enforce the provisions of the Act of March 2nd, 1799, requiring, under a heavy penalty, masters both of United States and foreign vessels on arriving within four leagues of the coast to have on board duplicate manifests of their cargoes.

☞ A correspondent of the Maine Farmer gives an account of Mrs Harlow, an elderly and venerable lady of Norridgewock, who has collected a very remarkable and curious museum, not only of nature and art, but of numerous pictures of her own forming, and also relics of antiquity.

☞ The following is a copy of Mr Webster's letter to the Mayor and Aldermen of Boston in answer to their invitation for him to address the citizens of Boston in Faneuil Hall.

BOSTON April 23, 1851

To Messrs. Henry B Rogers, Henry M Holbrook, Benj. Smith, N A. Thompson, Jos Smith, Harvey Jewell:

Gentlemen:—I have perused the paper which you did me the honor to place in my hands yesterday, and have to say that it is not my purpose to address my fellow citizens in Faneuil Hall during this visit to Boston.

Very Respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
DANIEL WEBSTER.

☞ Thanks to Bryant & Co's Express for papers received on Saturday, brought by the efficient and attentive conductor, Mr. Haines, of Winslow & Co's Express on Saturday, in advance of the mail.

☞ We are under obligations to Mr Pegg, Clerk of the steamship Boston for New York papers received on Saturday in advance of the mail.

☞ Miss Martineau's new book Man's Nature and Development, abounds with atheistic sentiment, most disgraceful to her as a woman, and to the enlightened age in which she lives.

☞ The use of iron for buildings, furniture statuary and other purposes, is being rapidly extended through the ingenuity which has of late years been exercised in that direction.

☞ The Street Commissioner intends to keep the streets clean the present season as will be seen by referring to his advertisement in another column.

☞ Capt R. Cowin of Plymouth is making a sounding line for the United States Government ten thousand yards long.

Short Dresses

Mrs Bloomer editor of the Lily, has adopted the short dress and trowsers, and says in her issue of this month that many of the women in that place (Seneca Falls) oppose the change, others laugh, others still are in favor. Many have already adopted the dress. She closes her remarks upon the subject as follows:

Those who think we look "queer," would do well to look back a few years, to the time when they wore ten or fifteen pounds of petticoats and hoops round the body, and balloons on their arms, and then imagine which cut the queerest figure, they or we? We cordially for the frowns of over fastidious gentlemen we have these of better taste and less questionable morals to encounter. If they think they would be convertible in long, heavy skirts, let them put them on—we have no objection. We are more comfortable without them, and to have left them off. We do not say we shall wear this dress always, but we shall wear it for a common dress, and we hope it may become so fashionable that we may wear it at all times and in all places, without being thought singular. We have already become so attached to it that we dislike changing to a long one.

Scene on the Isthmus

We have remarked some of the roughest specimens of humanity passing through this city, that we ever cast eyes upon in our life before. The other day while standing at the Exchange, our attention was called to one of the very hardest looking of customers just arrived in the Isthmus from California, after quite a long residence in El Dorado. He and those with him were bearded like pards. He was interrogating, to the jabber of a native who had hired him a mule, and on seeing his baggage was remonstrating to get a dollar or two more. "Look ye here, hombre," said he, "a bargain's a bargain. I agree to give you twenty dollars, I paid you the half, start your boots! I am a man of few words and in ten minutes that mule and already packed there will be alone, dead nigger about these diggings." He drew a revolver from his belt, looked at the days and turning round, looked savage defiance at every body.

At that instant a lady on a mule and two beautiful little girls on their way to California, were trying to pass the blocked up thoroughfare. His eyes met the appealing gaze of the lady. In an instant his whole countenance was changed. He doffed his hat to the lady, backed the mule hombre and all, and with a sweep of his arm, called the attent on of his comrades "Back boys said he, make way for the lady!" The way was cleared, and the lady passed. Our stalwart friend stood gazing after them for a minute or two, and as he turned round, we could perceive his face suffused with tears on wiping them he perceived we were regarding him closely. "I have been away from home, sir said he with a faltering voice, for two years, that woman, and the faces of those little children, remember me of my family. God bless my girls and their mother!" too shaking himself, as it were, he returned his revolver to his belt, and, in a mild voice, said to the native, "Come, hombre as soon as you can, my friend, get that mule ready, and you shall have twice as much!" And so saying walked thoughtfully away.—Panama Paper.

WOFFORD COLLEGE. We have already mentioned that the Rev Benjamin Wofford of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, had bequeathed one hundred thousand dollars for the establishment of a college in Spartanburgh district, South Carolina. The Board of Trustees designated by the testator met on the 16th inst. and fixed the location of the college in the town of Spartanburg, and made the preliminary arrangements for the erect on of suitable buildings.—N Y Com Adv.

LINES,

On hearing a Whippoorwill the first time for many years, while on a visit

For I am my cottage home, with kindred friends I slept
But ere the day had dawn'd I woke arose and wept
I often heard when riding the plaintive Whippoorwill,
And now she sang again beneath my window still,
A lone was in her voice, Justina! days of yore,
She had not one lone lea, nor had she one side more,
I heard with pure delight, her clearest heartful lay,
No change had come to her, fifteen years had passed away

Down the quiet night, when silent stars are out,
And peace spreads o'er the earth, and fled are care and doubt
A chill on dost creep it too, my lonely Whippoorwill,
Else why come to those lie night, with tears my eyes, to fill.

And art thou still alone, has earth for thee no tie,
No one to cheer thee then just like thee, am I,
No one at thy sweep come, as I sit enough my door—
My house is lone as it can be, and thou's no more.

And yet I am not alone when there, a spirit comes to me
He comes so mild and watches with intensity
His presence well I know and feel, I'm so as I hear,
Thou not alone like thee art I strange bird so dear—
Thou secrete in fair round, a lovely rural spot
The mill the stream the forest pile around the cot,
Dead bird the deep will hear me far away from thee,
But I am I not forget thy sight day, song to me

I heard and O the past was like a written leaf,
No love was crowded all my life, in one hour brief,
As were on warm rolls on, as thought on thought arose,
Thy change that marked my life, or touched my heart's repose,

Wan! for weal or woe that to my sight came not,
No word, nor look was lost, in friendly form forgot,
My dear big Father wish and bid my heart be still
And let me trust in Thee thou art a lone whippoorwill

Storm at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, May 2.

A dreadful storm and gale visited this city yesterday afternoon, doing great damage.

Early yesterday morning the wind commenced blowing furiously from the West, and in the course of two hours the water in the harbor was raised about three feet above its ordinary level. The water in the canal at noon was about three inches over the tow path and still rising. The shipping in the harbor has sustained much damage in the loss of sails and rigging.

The brig J T Sommons was compelled to put back on account of the severity of the gale. On entering the harbor she dropped both anchors which, however did not check her progress, when she ran foul of the canal boat Blackbird.

A passenger named Hiram Burbank, aged 13 years, was just coming from the cabin when the brig struck the bow of the boat. Mr B's legs entangled in the fore chains, breaking the left leg above the knee, and horribly lacerating the right leg from the knee to the thigh, laying open the flesh and exposing the bone. Medical aid was at once obtained, and it is thought he will recover.

The brig Montezuma, on entering the harbor, ran into the steamer Empire forcing her bow, sprit into the after cabin of the steamer. We learn that the schr Sylph was sunk in consequence of a collision with a large vessel in the harbor. The schr Mount Vernon was also driven back by the force of the gale. She sustained no damage.

From Canada.

MONTREAL April 29.

Despatches are just published from Earl Grey to the government, according to which the Imperial Government will not object to reduction in the civil list, and will recommend the British Parliament to pay the Earl in Canada, but in return will remove the troops except from the garrison of Quebec and Kingston, and will charge the Province with ordnance, canals, and barracks, also with presents to Indians.

Earl Grey does not think this will tend to a separation of the Colonies from the mother country.

Union Movement in Georgia.

WASHINGTON, May 2.

The Intelligencer has information from Georgia that Hon A H Stevens, whig, declines being a candidate for Governor, and urges the Union party to rally round Howell Cobb ex Speaker in the House of Representatives.

The Intelligencer expresses much pleasure at this evidence of fraternization among the leading members of the old parties in Georgia on the great platform of the Union.

INDIAN OUTRAGES ON THE MEXICAN FRONTIER.—It is said that the Mexican Government is already prepared to demand of the United States something like a million of dollars for damages caused by the Indians on the borders which by the treaty of peace we became bound to prevent. We do not know about the amount but the claim is undeniably a just one. Not the least expensive of the boons secured to the Republic by the three glorious war with Mexico, is the guardianship of these Camanches, Navajoes, and other labor tribes, compared with whom our own Florida Indians were nothing.

We learn from Washington that the Administration will try and do something to check these depredations but much they cannot do as Congress failed to make any appropriation for the purpose, and none of the troops which would have been most serviceable for such a warfare have had to be disbanded. Besides, these Indians do not operate on a small scale. They are understood to have got the greater part of the Mexican State of Durango under their control and it will be no trifling matter to put a stop to their forays and reduce them to order.—N Y Tribune.

A Child in Texas Kidnapped by a Mexican.

We learn from a gentleman of this county that a Mexican, by the name of Antonio, went to the residence of a Mr Johnson, living in Victoria county, a few days since, and captured and carried off a little girl about nine years of age, a daughter of Mr J. The circumstances as related to us are these. The Mexican had been loitering about the premises of Mr. J for several days, waiting, as the facts prove an opportunity to seize the girl, and finally, on the evening of the 22d ult a little after dark he copied the girl, who had walked out into the yard when he immediately caught her, and choking her so that she could make no noise, made off. The little girl was very soon missed by the family, who commenced a search immediately, which they continued during the night, though without effect. The next morning the Mexican was missed, and the idea at once flashed across the mind of the family that he had carried the child off. The father forthwith collected a party and started in pursuit, and after two or three days hard riding heard that a Mexican, answering the description of Antonio had passed through Halletsville, having a little girl with him.

They pressed forward in hot haste, and at last came across the villain at the house of another Mexican, living on the Nueces. It was sometime after dark when the party came up to the aforesaid house, and without halting they rushed into the house, and found Antonio with the little girl in bed. He jumped up and tried to make his escape, but was stopped by one of the party presenting his gun at him.—He was then tied and made secure. It was with difficulty that the party could be prevented from killing him on the spot. He was finally, however, placed in the custody of the injured father, who started with him on the direction of his home. The little girl said that the Mexican gagged her, and told her if she made the least noise he would kill her, showing her a large knife which he had in his belt. He also told her that he intended to make her his wife. He confessed himself that he had attempted to poison Mr Johnson, that he might the more certainly succeed in his infamous plan.

The Victoria Advocate of the 3d, says in relation to the above that as the Mexican was being carried to that place he attempted to make his escape. He succeeded in wresting a gun from Mr Johnson, and fired it, slightly wounding Mr Johnson in the shoulder. Mr Johnson was then forced, as he conceives, in self defence, to shoot him, which he did, leaving his body on the ground where the rencontre occurred. Mr Johnson then proceeded to Victoria, and surrendered himself to the authorities, demanding an enquiry into his conduct.—Lagrange, Texas, Monument.

Three Important Facts.

Never be influenced by external appearances in forming your judgment of a person's worth. It is an important rule for many a noble spirit is covered by habiliments of poverty, while not unfrequently, a showy exterior conceals a villain of the basest kind.

"Dean Swift said that nature has given every man a capacity of being agreeable, though not of shining in company, and "there are a hundred men sufficiently qualified for both, who, by a very few faults that they may correct in half an hour, are not so much as tolerable."

The world would be more happy if persons gave up more time to intercourse of friendship. But money engrosses all our difference, and we scarce enjoy a social hour, because we think it unjustly stolen from the main business of life.

IS MR. SUMNER ENTITLED TO A SEAT IN THE SENATE? The following pertinent facts, from a correspondent of the Transcript, are worthy of attention.

"Mr S had just a majority of the votes as counted by the Committee. If they had counted the two blank votes he would not have been elected.

Mr David Levy Yulee, for the last six years a Senator from Florida was recently a candidate for re election and on the first ballot had a clear majority excluding blank votes. There the Committee counted blanks, and declared there was no election. On a subsequent ballot Mr Stephen R. Mallory was elected, and has received his credentials. Mr Yulee, meanwhile, has addressed a memorial to Congress, claiming the seat.

Now the Senate is the final judge of the election of its own members and it will either declare that blanks shall not be counted and thereby exclude Hon Mr Mallory, Senator elect from Florida or that they shall be and thereby send home Hon Mr Sumner, Senator elect from Massachusetts. Which shall it be? Nous verrons.

The facts are we believe, correctly stated in the above, and the only conclusion which we can deduce from them is that either Mr Sumner is not, or Mr Yulee is, entitled to a seat in the Senate.—[Boston Journal.

It seems to us that the local law will settle each case and the gentlemen obtain their seats.—[L'Wig.

BOOTS AND SHOES. The business of the week has been rather limited for the season, there having been in market but a comparatively small number of merchants from the Westward East, and none from the South that we have heard of. The stock of Boots and Shoes adapted to the season is moderate, and prices remain steady and firm.

We notice more than usual caution in giving credit, from the fact that the trade has been so prosperous four or five years past and many think has become too much expanded, and a reaction soon no very improbable. If manufacturers curtail to some extent it will tend greatly to their advantage, and to the health and prosperity of the business. If they go on and accumulate an overstock at the present high cost of the material there will be greater danger of a loss, no one large outlet, California is cut off for the present, and all conversant with the trade must feel that outlet had a very important bearing in keeping up prices the past year.—[Boston Shipping List.

BLACKBERRYING THE HOMESTEAD. We claim it to be the duty of every man who is a farmer to plant fruit and ornamental trees to cultivate and grow the vine as well as all useful vegetables, to beautify and adorn his grounds and garden with flowers, plants and shrubbery, and so arrange his yards and grounds as to give his habitation as Eden like an appearance as possible. Should our farmers be thus true to themselves, and dutiful to nature then with truth, of our country it might be said in the language of the poet, "is

The land of the myrtle, the cypress and vine,
Where all but the spirit of man is divine"

NEW ORLEANS, May 2, 1851

The Steamship Alabama has arrived here in six days from Chagres, with one hundred and seventy nine passengers and a large amount of gold dust.

The steamers Crescent City, North America and Georgia had arrived at Chagres.

Dates from San Francisco are to the first of April. News generally unimportant.

From the mines and dry diggings reports are very favorable and new discoveries are constantly being made—in fact, prospects from all quarters appear to be encouraging.

The decision has been given in the District Court of Sacramento sustaining suitors of claims on all lands on which the city is located. No further attempts have been made to dislodge them, nor is it likely there will be.

Steamers Tennessee and Columbia had arrived at Panama with a million and a half of gold dust.

Dates from Havana to the 26th of April have been received at Savannah. Great excitement is manifested among the government officials, in anticipation of the appearance of Lopez with an army of invaders.

Dates from Mexico to the 9th ult report the present government in a deplorable condition. Several parties were at work—one to join Mexico to Spain another in favor of the return of Santa Anna and still another for annexation to the United States.

THE undersigned having entire ly REBUILT and ENLARGED the above extensive establishment, containing in all about three hundred and fifty rooms, would respectfully give notice that it is now ready for the reception and accommodation of the travelling community.
An extended notice of the unsurpassed conveniences of this House is deemed superfluous, as the numerous improvements which have been made cannot be properly given in an advertisement—Suffice it to say that no expense has been spared to render any apartment perfect.
The furniture was made expressly to order, regardless of cost, and certain portions of it, especially the Drawing rooms, will be found to be of the most beautiful and tasteful manufacture. The Dining-rooms are capacious, and the hours for meals will be so arranged as to suit the convenience of the early and late.

THE

GENUINE BALM OF COLUMBIA

If you wish to be free from the annoyance of dandruff and baldness, procure the genuine Balm of Columbia. Thousands of bald heads have been covered with a fine growth of hair by its use, many who have lost their hair for twenty years have used it with the most astonishing success. Thousands who have used other articles have found the best they could find worthless, and have at last resorted to the original and only genuine article, and have been cured. Ladies who have used it for their children, have found it the best article they ever used for the hair. A few applications will restore the hair to the bald spot, and a few more will cover the whole head with a new growth. It never fails to impart a healthy growth to the hair, and never leaves it harsh and dry like other preparations. Parents who wish their children to have a fine head of hair, should use it. Persons who wish to purchase, should be careful to ask for Comstock & Co's Balm of Columbia, and see that the signature of Comstock & Co is on the wrapper of each bottle, as there are many worthless imitations.
